

Tuesday p.m., May 23 — Bayeux War Cemetery

A brief visit to Bayeux War Cemetery was a special moment for Dawn McArthur, who laid a flag at the grave of her cousin, L. Cpl. J.C. Sackfield of the Queen's Own Rifles, who died on Aug. 11, 1944. The Bayeux cemetery is the largest cemetery of Second World War Commonwealth soldiers in France.

The Abbaye Ardenne

The Abbaye Ardenne was the scene of the execution of 18 captured Canadian soldiers, including Sapper George Alonzo Benner of St. Williams, by Nazi SS troops. Above: The Canadian soldiers. By Pat Greenfield.

Below left: Memorial garden. By Leesa Maxwell.

Below right: By Barb Faulkner.

