

Thursday, May 25, a.m. — Nine Elms Military Cemetery, Thélus, France

By Robert Judd.

Our Norfolk boys

- Pte. John Thomas Carnahan — Carholme — April 9/17
- Pte. John Stewart Crerar — Port Rowan — April 9/17
- Pte. George Colton — Toronto — April 9/17
- Pte. Arthur Earl McCall — Oseola, PA — April 9/17
- Pte. Cyrus William McClentic — Delhi — April 9/17
- Pte. Lorance Thomass Morrow — Charlotteville — April 9/17
- Pte. Thomas Marshall Mosgrove — Courtland — April 9/17
- Pte. Harold Vernon Nethercott — Cultus — April 9/17
- Pte. John Pake — Lynedoch — April 9/17
- Pte Robert Leonard Scott — Simcoe — April 9/17
- Pte. Percival Jesse Smith — Vittoria — April 9/17
- Pte. William James West — Houghton — April 9/17
- Pte. Arthur West — Houghton — April 9/17
- Pte. Ben Wright Howarth — Simcoe — April 9/17

Nine Elms Canadian War Cemetery contains the graves of 14 Norfolk soldiers, possibly the largest number of any war cemetery in the world.

A single grave marks the resting place of two brothers, Arthur and William West of Houghton, both of whom died on April 9, 1917, in the battle of Vimy Ridge.

Above: Sheila and Lorne Pilgrim lay flags.

Left: The West brothers' grave.

Photos by Dawn McArthur.

Above: By Cathy Britt.

Right: Rose Barati with Nancy Murray signs the guest book.

