

Thursday, May 25, p.m. — Hill 70 Memorial

Renee and Mike Jarvis at Hill 70..

By Dawn McArthur.

From left: Bob Castles, Ken Taylor and Scott Jenereaux salute.

Photos by Dawn McArthur.

Our bloodiest battle

Hill 70 was the bloodiest battle Norfolk ever fought. Twenty-nine of our men were killed. The fighting was so violent that the bodies of 20 of them were never found or identified. Fred Hobson, VC, died in this battle.

Members of Norfolk Remembers climbed Hill 70 for a sneak peek at the new monument to be unveiled at the centennial of the battle in August.

