

Amsterdam — May 27 to May 30

Amsterdam is a beautiful city of 800,000 people and 600,000 bicycles. The people are easy-going but watch out for the bicycles.

City highlights included the Anne Frank House, the Van Gogh Museum and the Rijksmuseum and the Jewish quarter.

Above: By Pat Greenfield.

Left: The Holiday Inn.
By Dawn McArthur.

Canals and bicycles

By David Judd.

By Mike Jarvis.

Mike Jarvis (left) and Robert Judd pose with figures from Rembrandt's "Night Watch."

By Renee Jarvis.

Out on the town

Left: Jeff Greenfield says these shoes were a little big on him.

Above: In the red light district.

Photos by Pat Greenfield.